PEOPLE

Did you always want to be a writer?

I always liked to write. Writing for me is cleaning my mind, giving me peace, and putting my mind in order. If I had the time I would write all the time.

What are your hobbies?

I like to ride bikes and to fly planes. I am a pilot. I go to the air park in Pompano and rent small planes and pilot them. As a family we are very much into arts, and we take a trip every year around the U.S. or Europe.

What is the message you want to send people through your books?

I am sending "Escape del ultimo tren de Auschwitz" free of charge to all the libraries around the world. It's like a message. If the people would know history, they would be aware of the consequences of war and religion intolerance.
